that engrossed the attention of the Chirt all day.

The first case called was that of, the State vs. Exams Wooster, charged with aspants and battery. Owing to the absence of material witnesses, as the request of the Procenting Attorney the case was damised.

John McDonough was next brought into Court. It will be remembered, that during the last State Fair, McDonough was seened of stealings a watch from a party in a Twelfth attent can the shame Batchelor in which McDonough was alecting. Presscuting Attentive Jordan sated that as the Grand fury had falled to return an indicting a scan from the prisoner and owing to the logk of material witnesses, he felt compelled to set that the sprisoner he released, which was done. McDonough was delighted to indich imself free again.

McDohough was delighted to find himself free again.

Joseph Howard and F.; linaud Méller, indicted jointly of larceny, appeared, and Howard asking a seyerance ne was put on trial first. The charge was that he was a confederate of Miller's in stealing brass journals from cars on the B. & O. sidings. Capt. Downer appeared for the defense. The claim he set up was, that Howard had been made the victim, so to speak, of misplaced confidence. The following jury herrd the case. Herman Dailer, Louis Asmus, P. B. / inc. Balser, Botts, Wm. Rayle, Adam Kratz. Henry B. Godfray, Michael Gruber, Stephen Tracy, Patrick Daily, Harry Houser and Wm. Manion. Howard was given six months in the county jail.

Last night was the time for the first reular December meeting of Council. In the First Branch matters were quiet. In the ond there was a little quiet fue withou the usual war of words. Business was dis sed of rapidly and intelligently. A quorum was secured in the Second Branch about 9 o'clock. President Hildreth was in the chair and all the members were present except Meurs. Gavin, Gregan aegar, Jones, Milligan, Peterson, G. O. Smith, Wilkinson and Wingerter. As Clerk Bowers concluded the reading of the min-Bower concluded the reading of the min-ntes, Mr. Jones, of the Island, appeared and handed the President a slip of paper and re-quested that it be read. It was very brist and to the effect that he resigned his position as a member of the Second Branch. There was a dead silouce for a few seconds and then Mr. Shanley paid Mr. Junes a few compli-mentary remarks and asked for a reacon for the resignation. Several expected an out-break against the D. P. W., but Mr. Jones said no slips. Dr. Wingsetter moved after a few more seconds of silsence, that the paper be accepted. Mr. Healy moved it be laid on the table, which was seconded by Mr. Glesson. This motion was adopted and Mr. Jones was not allowed to resign.

Capt. Thes. Bennet presented the name of Thos. Montgomery for confirmation as a deputy sergeant, vice W. H. Fugate resigned. He was sworn in.

that the committee had no authority in the matter.

Dr. Jepson said before any action was taken in this matter he wished to speak to a question of privilege. The Register's report of the last Council meeting had charged him with being the author of Mr. Jones' resolutions. Tais was not so, it was a direct falschood. It was not the first time the Register had by its Council reports placed him in a false position. He had never had occasion to criticize the B. P. The andicroe that pasembled in the First Raptist church lear night chowed with what interest the people of this city looked for the coming of the celebrated Jublies Bingers of Nashville, Tenn. In the randition of the programme, which was lengthy, the singers clearly exhibited the fact, that they are not simply a salified to reproduce in a very plearing manner the old plantation songs of Southern darkits in clayery times, but also satisfied the intelligent audience before them that they have mastered the most difficult parts of the musical art, It would indeed be hard to tell which of the many pieces on the programme were the most happily disposed of, but it is santjerly safe to say that the concert was the most successful of the kind ever presented to the people of Whesting. Little George Rice, who received such a severe gun-shot wound while hunting, is getting along very nicely. Surgeon J. M. Todd on last Sunday took sone forty pieces of bone from the wound. This embraced all the bone of the arm above the wound, including the shoulder joint. The bone below the wound, or between the wound and the elbow joint, was protruded through the wound and sawed off below the injured part. The operation was a delicate and succes fol one. The case has been an interesting one, and the saving of the arm in a somewhat impaired condition certainly does credit to the profession.
